

SALISBURY JOURNAL, 24 January 1757.

TO BE SOLD.

A FARM at Broughton, in the County of Southampton (about twelve miles from Salisbury, eight miles from Romsey and eight miles from Andover) consisting of a Farm House, Barns, Stable and Rick-House, (the whole in very good repair) and upwards of 200 acres of Land, now in the Renting of Nicholas Parsons, at 75L per Ann.

Also a Water Grist-Mill, called Broughton Mill, with about two acres of Meadow adjoining, now in the possession of the Widow Linton, on a 21 year lease, at the yearly Rent of L. The Mill also in very good repair. Both Estates are freehold.

For further Particulars enquire of Mr Henry Dench, Attorney of Salisbury; of Mr John Godfrey, Painter in Portsmouth; or Mr Edward Hayles, Barber in Southampton.

Will sent figures in crease as the microfilm is not legible.